AOTEAROA NEW ZEALAND FILM FESTIVAL

This year saw the founding of Hawaiiki Hou—the World Māori Film Festival Congress, and the museum's Aotearoa New Zealand Film Festival is one of the group's first associate members, along with festivals in Australia and Tahiti, and joining founding members in Wairoa, Raratonga, Sydney and New York. Don't miss this year's stellar selection of shorts and features showcasing Aotearoa's unique culture, wicked sense of humor and distinctive cinematic visions.

Leo Koziol, Louisa Tipene Opetaita, Misa Tupou, Wairoa Māori Film Festival, New Zealand Film Commission, Hawaiiki Hou—the World Māori Film Festival Congress, Pacific Islanders in Communications, the Center for Pacific Islands Studies at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa + the Creating Futures Rooted in Wonder Symposium.
